Queen of Hearts (Volume 2) Kiniesha Gayle

The games have been played and BabyGirl has won, or so she thinks. Taking down Andre Chin, took courage and craftiness, something she acquire after her parents' death. Her life has been nothing short of challenging: a business partner with hidden agenda, a boyfriend who is all for self, an enemy who won't stay dead and a detective who wants to bring her down. NYPD pulled Tony Moreno's near lifeless body out of the East River after an anonymous tip. Now, he has DT Garfin on his tail, an empire to reclaim, a failing marriage, and three women to silence once and for all without leaving a clue. While each player hold their hands close to their chest, BabyGirl and Tony declare an out right war. Will Tony need for revenge bring her down, or will BabyGirl step up to the plate and bury him once and for all? Kiniesha Gayle deals a more deadly round of BabyGirl and Tony than she did in King of Spades and it's not just about business, it's Personal.
