In the Name of Jesus: Prayers for Every Occasion Omar Weber

More than 200 prayers have been translated in such a way to retain the warmth and expression of the original Spanish expressions. Each topic features a suggested reading from Scripture that gives a context or foundation for the prayer that follows.

This beautiful and expressive book can be used for practically every life circumstance, including themes such as worry, intercession, feelings, church, family, friends, suffering, giving thanks, and one's relationship with God. The goal of this book is not to turn prayer into a strict routine, but rather to be a guide that leads people into closer contact with their heavenly Father.
