After the Fall Naomi De'Gebttlin

In the year 1587, after her kidnap and fall from high society Lady Lyfelde soon learns that life is never fair, but it is eventful. Her loathsome captor, a young lady assassin who goes by the name of Fyneux, took the contract for the Lady's kidnap from a young Count of Moscovy who is already enamoured by the Lady. The journey for the two starts rough, and can only continue as such when captor and captive find themselves on a long and uncooperative journey across a continent with dangers and adventure lurking around every corner... including an adventure the two women could have never imagined, closer to one another.
