WHY DID I HAVE TO FALL FOR A CRIMINAL?

ISABELLE

I never wanted to go back to my life as a runaway. I swear.

I was a rebellious teenager who could not stay out of trouble for long. But all that was in the past. Wasn't it?

Until I met him.

Convicted felon. Murderer. Prison escapee.

I trained my gun on him but I knew I would never pull the trigger. The minute I saw his eyes - and his body.

What the hell am I doing? I wish I never let him touch me. Kiss me. Ravage me under the night's stars.

And now I'm on the run with him. Barely escaping death every moment of the way. And barely able to accept that I am his - whether my mind wants to accept it or not.

ASHTON

I swore I wouldn't hook up with another woman until I cleared my name. Hell, I'm running away from the feds, the cops, the rival MC gang - I have no time for this sh*t.

I tried to resist her. Then to convince her to leave me the hell alone. Then to return home. But all resistance is futile now, and we both know it.

You'd think I would have more pressing things on my mind...than pressing my body against hers, as often as possible.

I know I should stop, but the hell if I can. So now she's running from the world with me.

Until I'm free. And she's mine for good.

Originally published as a seven part serial under the name Olivia Hawthorne. This edition contains all seven instalments plus five new chapters of additional bonus story.
