Choosing To Run: Jonah's Encounter With God's Grace Jennifer Devlin

In this book Jennifer Devlin reaches out to those desperate for a second chance at life as well as those needing a fresh relationship with God. In sharing the adventure of Jonah, the reader discovers the unending love of God and that Jonah's story is much more than a tale of a man and a whale. It is the picture of the grace and mercy of God, shown from many angles, and through many different lives. Devlin shares her heart in this book as it relates to people leaving their past in the dust. She reminds the reader that God wants to give everyone a life without regrets, rebellion, or the captivity of sin. It is a wonderful read meant to result in the acceptance of God's grace and restoration of the most broken areas of life. The gift to the reader will be a freedom that many have never experienced before. So begin the encounter today with God who has been waiting for us, longing for us to seek Him, and ready for us to find Him. Challenge questions are at the end of each chapter making this an ideal work for small group study.
