Racconti popolari giapponesi: 7 (Narrativa) (Italian Edition) Adriana Lisboa

Racconti popolari giapponesi raccoglie sei storie tratte dalla cultura nipponica, rivisitate e narrate dall'autrice brasiliana Adriana Lisboa, che ne è venuta a conoscenza durante un viaggio nel paese del Sol Levante. Forte è il richiamo alla tradizione orale, alle fiabe e alle favole che si manifesta nella semplicità della struttura, dove lo scandaglio psicologico e gli aggettivi sono superflui. Il lettore è catapultato, attraverso un lento incedere narrativo, dal mondo reale a quello onirico e fantastico tipicamente nipponico: la tartaruga marina, il cappello di bambù, la dama della neve, la teiera magica, la gru e il bambino-pesca.

Questi racconti – i cui protagonisti conducono una vita frugale all'insegna di valori essenziali – sono metafora del comportamento umano, confermando la capacità della letteratura giapponese di oltrepassare i confini geografici.
