TIGER MENAGE ROMANCE SHORT STORY

After her altercation with Shonara, Jessica is caught in her web of lies and because she is a panther, faces the prejudices of the tiger clan. Because she is one of the tiger's mortal enemies, she is guilty until proven innocent – and finds that proving her innocence in the face of such bias impossible...

The clan council banishes her from the village forever.

Wandering through the jungle alone and heartbroken, Jessica is approached by Savina, a panther from Anok's village. She persuades Jessica to come back to the village with her.

But once there, Anok, the clan Alpha, declares that he knew she would come back to him and that she is to marry him.

But her heart remains with Tomeo and she longs to be in his loving embrace once more.

Given a week to decide between marrying Anok or living as a captive in the panther village, Jessica surprises herself by coming to feel comfortable among the panthers – after all she is a panther now.

Jessica is at war within herself. She is attracted to and turned on by Anok. The panther in her feels the desire to mate with him, to submit to her Alpha, to be his. The war within herself still rages, but she comes to terms with the fact that Tomeo rejected her and she feels that she can build a new home within the panther clan.

Will Jessica marry Anok and live among the people who will accept her as family?

Or will she hold out her heart and body for Tomeo, the one who exiled her from the clan?
