Stanotte la libertà (Biblioteca Dominique Lapierre) (Italian Edition) Dominique Lapierre, Larry Collins
All'inizio degli anni settanta Dominique Lapierre e Larry Collins attraversano il continente indiano per raccogliere interviste con testimoni, registrare vicende strabilianti, comporre la trama di un potente racconto corale: quello del popolo indiano in cammino verso la propria indipendenza. Dalla nomina di Lord Mountbatten a viceré delle Indie, il 1° gennaio 1947, all'assassinio di Gandhi, il 30 gennaio 1948, Stanotte la libertà ripercorre i tredici mesi che cambiarono per sempre il volto dell'Impero britannico e il destino di quattrocento milioni di indiani. Un viaggio serrato e appassionante tra i segreti di una terra incantevole, le miserie e gli splendori del suo popolo, il coraggio e la fede degli uomini che aprirono la via alla libertà. Su tutti, s'irradia la figura del Mahatma Gandhi, la Grande anima, il profeta dal fascino tuttora inesauribile. Quel viaggio segnerà la vita di Dominique Lapierre, che da allora, preso d'amore per la sua India, vi ritornerà per infiniti viaggi, memorabili incontri, nobili slanci umanitari.
