Carlos V - El emperador predestinado (Spanish Edition) José Miguel Carrillo de Albornoz

Carlos V, El Emperador predestinado es una novela que analiza los treinta primeros años de la vida de Carlos I de España y V de Alemania y muestra las claves que le hacen reinar en una inmensa monarquía. El destino mima al joven príncipe y le coloca en una posición de preeminencia tal que su reinado supone un auténtico punto de inflexión en la historia europea y tiene proyecciones mundiales, con la creación del imperio español en América. Comprender al rey emperador, acercarnos al carácter de un monarca que marca el fin de una época, cuyo reinado alteró las líneas tradicionales de la política de los reinos hispanos y europeos, ha sido la tarea del autor.
