Save the Last Dance Marie Sparks

Marla Shelton is a young woman with spirit and grit, and she isn't afraid to go after what she wants. She recently graduated from college with plans to teach school. However, her father's accident throws a wrench in things and she must return to her family's horse ranch in Arizona.

Ruggedly handsome Jace Van Garrett owns a nearby cattle ranch. He's self-assured and seldom lacks female companionship. Seeing Marla again, not as a kid but a desirable woman, shocks him. Confused, he is caught between treating her like old times and the desire to sweep her off her feet. Marla protests vehemently. She knows about his reputation and doesn't intend to be another notch on his belt.

Is Jace really who she thinks, or is there something deeper beneath the charming surface? She claims to be too busy with the ranch to find out, but some things--like attraction, respect and love--are undeniable.
