Too often, matters of finance and planning leave the average investor shaking in his boots, either too paralyzed to move forward or too worried to make wise decisions. In this book, Kurt D. Cambier, CFP®, ChFC, is working to change all that. Cambier combines insights gleaned from 30 years of practice in the financial sector as well as keen readings of market research to show readers that the future is indeed brighter than they think. Not only that, but Cambier's easy-to-understand philosophy connects with readers on every page, working to help them get to that brighter future. In The Future Is Brighter Than You Think, Cambier walks investors through some of the most common pitfalls, how to avoid those traps, and how to enlist professional help, all in the name of disentangling the complicated web of investment management.
