Emily Gordon's elation at the news of her pregnancy is tempered by tragedy...

Only hours after Emily learns of the joyous event, her husband is killed suddenly in an accident on their farm. Now, Emily is alone and penniless with no living family and no means of supporting her unborn child. At the suggestion of a friend, Emily reluctantly agrees to look through a booklet of personal advertisements from

That is where she stumbles upon a familiar name...

As a teenager, Emily had a very close friend named Elijah whose family moved west. Now, when she sees the name Elijah written in the booklet, she wonders if this is the same Elijah she had, at one time, dreamed of marrying. Determined to find out, she answers his advertisement and they begin a correspondence. When Elijah proposes, Emily begins to dream that she might be able to rebuild her life.

But, she has not told him about the child she is carrying, and she still does not know if it is indeed her childhood friend who will meet her when she arrives. With so many things uncertain, will Emily be able to find happiness once again?

Please Note: This is a Novella with a HEA (happy ever after ending). Does not end with a "cliffhanger".
