Oltre la notte - Ombra & Luce (Italian Edition) Alessandra Saitta

Inghilterra, Glastonbury, 1975. Rebecca è una giovane donna, sposata con l'uomo che ama, Daniel, e ha da poco ricevuto il più meraviglioso dei doni, un figlio. La sua vita, però, non è felice e serena come dovrebbe essere: suo marito si rivela essere un violento, che picchia la moglie e terrorizza il bambino. Daniel perde il controllo e, in un eccesso d'ira, scatena tutta la sua brutalità sulla moglie, riducendola in fin di vita. Tutto sembra giunto alla fine per Rebecca, ma in realtà ciò che l'attende è un nuovo inizio: in una notte di pioggia il suo più caro amico, che lei credeva morto, tornerà da un mondo misterioso la salverà, donandole la vita eterna. Rain è il suo nuovo nome.

Italia, Catania, 2000. La mente di Rain è persa nei tristi ricordi di molti anni prima che continuano a tormentarla. Nemmeno le note della musica riescono a distrarre i suoi pensieri, a farle accettare tutta la violenza e le regole della sua nuova vita. Rain vive l'emarginazione come un disagio quasi fisico. Fin quando i suoi cupi occhi neri incontrano quelli profondi e verdi di uno sconosciuto e subito percepisce una sensazione di familiarità: è uno di loro pur essendo, però, misteriosamente diverso.
