James Parker won't give up on his wife, Bella.

Not after everything they've been through together. What started as an unlikely marriage between a blue blood and a rebel blossomed like the gardens Bella cultivates.

But she can't remember any of it. Miles from home, afflicted with amnesia, she's safe in the care of a kind doctor—and safe from the memory of the betrayal that made her leave. Now it's up to James to remind her of their wonderful life together, to help her fall in love again...and to help her find the way home.
