Professor Cassandra MacLeod is a professor of military history. She has been approached by a shadow agency of the Department of Defense for participation in a mysterious project that would utilize her special talents in history and linguistics. In the midst of this, she has suffered personal losses. She begins having dreams of a faceless stranger and experiencing coincidences that begin to feel not so coincidental. Is she being warned by loved ones who have passed or directed by a divine hand? This is the first of three installments of one woman's journey in overcoming her past to change her future. Content advisory: Strong profanity and sexual content
