Rosa de Fuego (B DE BOOKS) (Spanish Edition) Emilio Marrese

Una novela de intriga sobre el Barça y la guerra civil. Barcelona, 1937. En plena guerra civil, la ciudad resiste a los fascistas pero está desgarrada por el conflicto interno entre comunistas y anarquistas. Una joven aparece estrangulada en el piso alquilado por un famoso jugador de fútbol. Un militar franquista se infiltra entre los republicanos. Un capitán de la Guardia Civil investiga... o quizá no. Mientras tanto, el Barça –ya en el punto de mira de los golpistas– zarpa hacia México en una gira que puede salvar a los jugadores de un destino aciago, y al club de la bancarrota. Setenta años después, Pablo, un joven mexicano, y Rosa, una chica barcelonesa, intentan reconstruir aquellos sucesos para descubrir la verdad sobre sus propias familias. Una novela negra y a la vez histórica inspirada en hechos reales, en cuyo trasfondo palpitan la Barcelona metropolitana de hoy y la 'Rosa de Fuego', como era llamada en los años treinta, cuando todavía era la ciudad más roja de Europa.
