Political Pamphlets and Sermons from Wales 1790-1806 (Wales and the French Revolution) Marion Loffler

This in-depth volume reviews the Welsh political pamphlets and sermons of the period, focusing on the debates between religious Dissenters, Methodists and the Church; radicals and loyalists; as well as pacifists and patriotic war supporters. Its second part presents annotated editions of five important Welsh political pamphlets with full translation, thus making them accessible to an English-speaking audience for the first time.
