HEA

Katherine Alexander finds out her father has impulsively married another woman only a year after her mother died, and without telling her. In those same twenty-fours, she also finds out that she has a mysterious new step-brother, who happens to be more than meets the eye. She tries to fight her desire for him but he is hard to ignore. When she bends to one will, another secret will come to test her. Will she be able to see her taboo desires for what they really are?

Henry Carver comes home to a woman in his bed. His initial reaction is to treat her like all others – have his fun with them and send them on their way. Except this time when he turns on the lights and sees her curvy body in his bed, his thoughts move elsewhere. There's only one problem, it's his new step-sister. Since they're neither blood relatives and are both consenting adults, it doesn't take him long to decide what he wants to do. He's ready to take her to heights unknown, but should he have been guarding his heart the whole time? When push comes to shove, his wants may turn to needs and then how does he tell her his secret?
