Stephan loses his only friend in Houston. Eager for a new start, he relocates to the hard City of Angels. His first night in LA nearly turns out to be his last night on Earth—until two mysterious men save him from a savage death. As he tries to solve the mystery of their identity, he meets an unexpected ally in the form of his own personal Creole sex god. Finding love and redemption in Marcel's tattooed arms, Stephan also starts to learn the truth about his saviors. He discovers that there are angels and demons, and that the city of Los Angeles is Ground Zero for a war as old as creation itself.

Inside Scoop: The pain in this gritty and violent story is vivid and real, the emotions even more so. Not for the faint of heart.

Reader Advisory: This story has graphic sexual language and scenes—no closed bedroom doors (or other rooms) here!
