"This book is for anyone who is afraid they made a big mistake on their wedding day. Read it, practice its exercises, and you will change how you see yourself, your partner, and your marriage. Your marriage can be redeemed and this inspirational book shows you how."

Dr. Les and Leslie Parrott

Authors of Saving Your Marriage Before It Starts and Becoming Soul Mates

It's a cold feeling in the pit of your stomach. One day, perhaps after a fight or after one more disappointment, you look at your spouse and think, I've made a terrible mistake. I married the wrong person. A terrifying conclusion but a feeling most married people have at one time or another.

Most people in less-than-perfect marriages feel a duty to stay married. But they also wonder how they can ever survive their painful situation. What If I Married the Wrong person? offers much more than pat advice to "tough it out." It brings perspective and inspiration, along with practical exercises and disciplines that over time will transform the way you think about your marriage. What If I Married the Wrong Person? can rebuild your marriage, enabling you to restore the intimacy and affection you once felt.
