A beleaguered, broken warrior gets all he ever wanted – a second chance at his lifelong enemy!

A loyal member of the Shield Brethren, Hafgrim once lost his right arm and all sense of hope to rampaging Viking invaders. Now, many years later, after being jailed and broken, still tortured and haunted by a sense of inadequacy, he is asked to defend his people against another overpowering Danish invasion. Old habits, like old soldiers, die hard. A warrior all his life, Hafgrim has been praying for this day of reckoning for eighteen years. He knows only too well what must be done. And what must be done immediately. Rallying his frightened townspeople, Hafgrim remembers the hell that was his last encounter with the relentless Viking hordes. And then the old, still defiant soldier reaches for his sword with his left hand ...

Brilliantly achieved and powerfully told, The Outcast is a memorable story inspired by the epic historical fantasy, The Foreworld Saga.
