St. Louis narcotics detective Jordan Delany has a gift. Not one she's particularly happy about. Through her dreams, she connects with dead victims of violent crimes. Her isolated life as a drug cop is perfect for hiding the freakish gift—until an investigation leads her to rural Titus, Missouri. While posing as a cocktail waitress in the town's corrupt strip joint, she's saved from a drunken customer by a handsome stranger. The chemistry that erupts is exactly why she plans to keep Mr. Arrogant at bay. But learning he's the new bouncer for the down-and-dirty nightclub might be the one reason why she can't.

Tyler McGee suspects a drug ring operating out of Buck's Nightclub is flooding the streets of his hometown with heroin. Determined to seek justice, he plays the part of a fallen cop and lands the job of head bouncer. What he discovers is that the club owner isn't the only deadly obstacle he's facing. His attraction to an intriguing cocktail waitress with a penchant for danger just might kill him first.

Together they wage war against a dangerous drug cartel until Jordan is brutally beaten and left for dead. When Ty takes her to his parent's home to recuperate, it's there that she's blind-sided by a painful truth he has hidden. The only way to help him now is by confessing her own dark secret. Will she confide about her gift in order to help him seek justice? Or will she turn away from the investigation and the only man she's ever allowed herself to dream of?
