The Loneliest Piano Ardyth Brott

The Loneliest Piano is another exploration of the world of music. Author Ardyth Brott takes us into the inner and personal life of a piano made originally in a factory in Germany, a sea voyage to New York, a concert in Carnegie Hall, a journey to a remote country residence. The personalization of how a piano feels about its various journeys, adventures, and misadventures, its triumphs and loneliness, is unusual and wonderful.
